FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 10, 1865.

A French Dilemma.

The Emperor of the French is in a quandary. The attitude he occupies towards America embarrasses him considerably. He watches the progress and successes of Marshal Bazaine and the French bayonets that under his command are endeavoring to carve out of distracted Mexico the imperial crown that Maximilian longs for, and that Napoleon has, in view of the general state of difficulty that now oppresses our continent, kindly chalked out for him, and the pleasure he experiences at having almost made a monarch, and almost crushed a people, is only alloyed by successes that little suit his plans, and the progress of arms that win glorious victories, but do not march to the measure of his hopes, and are suggestive of something like a future reckoning between the United States and France.

"One of the greatest farces ever enacted on Mexican soil since Santa Anna, pirouetted out of it upon the one leg left to him, was enacted when Maximilian became Emperor, "by the voice of the Mexican people." The only equal to it in modern history was the coup d'etat by which France became an Empire and Louis Napoleon climbed upon a throne. So long as the rebellion throve in the United States, France highly enjoyed the fact that her troops were swaying the fortunes of Mexico. The French faith in the Confederacy and in Mexico was identical, for the very good reason that it borrowed faith from our rebellion to predicate an Empire for Mexico upon, and its confidence in the success of Davis & Co. made it exult in the prospects of Maximilian, the fact being that had American affairs remained undisturbed, French impudence would have less developed.

It is well understood that Napoleon has had faith in the success of the rebellion, and if England had joined in the act, the Confederate States would have been fully recognized long since; but we owe England the consideration, whatever complaints we may urge against her, to believe that her refusal to act with France saved us from the many perils that would have followed recognition; and we owe France the consideration to believe that she would long since have recognized and openly aided the Confederacy if she had dared to do so. Sherman has accomplished something that was a natural consequence of such great success as he has achieved, but which was not laid down in the bill—he has astonished a whole nation of Frenchmen. The gay Parisian never realized how weak an institution chivalry was until they saw by the papers that Sherman had torn the Confederacy asunder and rent it in twain; they never appreciated the Monroe doctrine until they saw the national armies, almost without firing a shot, pierce the Confederate shell and tear the rebel flag from the shores of the Atlantic; they never feared for Maximilian until they conceived the idea that Sherman devised long since of sweeping up from the South by the light of rebel stores, warehouses and public works, and after humiliating South Carolina to drop Lee a summons from the south side of Richmond.

The news informs us that "France is neutral." A Privy Council meeting has been held in Paris, and we have an announcement that American affairs were earnestly discussed, "as to the attitude the United States may assume towards the new Empire." The Privy Council suddenly discovered that a people hitherto peaceful were metamorphosed into "an army with banners" and had become warlike. Of course the discovery was an uncomfortable one, but the Emperor and the Council shrug their shoulders and decide, that as American diplomacy talked plausibly of peace, French diplomacy would take it at its word and talk peace also. The conclusion was, "that it would be wrong to give way to exaggerated fears," while France would still not be wise "indulging in false security" which, making all due allowance for French style of expression, simply means that France will do the best she can under the unfortunate circumstances of rebel defeat.

In the mean time Maximilian is beginning to demand recognition of the United States. The American Consul at Matamoras has been furnished with permission to return home; it is made a crime against the Mexican Empire to sympathize with the country; the French troops and the rebels fraternize in true brotherly accord, and things tend to insure the downfall of Maximilian as soon as we have time to attend to his case. Either this conduct is not consonant with Napoleon's view or else that gentleman frequently changes his mind. The latest word from Paris is entire neutrality, and we are told that Napoleon has "determined to remove every cause of difficulty." Let us hope that he will commence with Maximilian and the army under Marshal Bazaine.

DALLES ITEMS.—The Mountaineer says that on Wednesday last Isaac B. Heusman committed an assault on Michael Costello. Officer Keeler ran across the street to arrest him and was shot through the hand by a pistol in the hand of Heusman. The latter was arrested and bound over in the sum of $800 to answer the charge of an assault with intent to kill.

That paper tells of a disgraceful scene enacted there on Tuesday night—a brute driving a white woman before him with kicks and curses. There seems to have been a charge of immorality involved, though there was no excuse for kicks and curses given a woman in the public streets.

The Union voters, to the number of 125, had met and nominated a ticket for city officers, and we think from appearances a good one.

FREIGHTS TO IDAHO.—In answer to the claims of the enterprising people of Red Bluff, that their route is the best and quickest for freighting to Idaho, we call attention to the fact that last season, much freight was carried at a cost of not over twelve cents, and some at not over ten cents, from San Francisco to the Boise mines. And taking all chances, where arrangements are properly made in anticipation, not over thirty days need elapse from shipment in California to arrival in Idaho, by the Columbia.

Letter from Canyon City.

CANYON CITY, March 1, 1865.

Since I wrote you a few days ago, an item has transpired, and I proceed in haste to send it.

On Monday the 27th ult.—as the tale is told to me—seven Snake Indians came out of the mountains, to a ranch on Cotton Wood, about forty-five miles from this place, and made great demonstrations of friendship to the whites. They warmed themselves in the white man's wigwam, ate the white man's bread, sold some geese to the white man, shook the white man's hand as a parting token of their friendly feeling, and then drove away a large number of the white man's horses. This is said to be the first difficulty of the season, and from the above statement you will agree with me that it was not difficult at all. So we may expect to hear of depredations being committed again this year. The Indians are not yet driven from their fastnesses, as has been supposed, but are still lurking about the road. Unless something be done to prevent it, more effectually than anything yet accomplished, it will be unsafe for man and beast between here and the Dalles this spring. Is there any source of relief from this annoyance, and protection against these savages? It seems to me there ought to be some ways to catch them. Yours, etc., RAFFAELLE.

The Herald's [illegible] It is positively known that our [illegible] was at [illegible] the Yadkin river, a little over one hundred [illegible] on the Cape Fear river, which [illegible] was removed [illegible] There were [illegible] day [illegible] that Sherman had defeated [illegible] a heavy battle and captured [illegible] prisoners.

Sheridan's Victory Over Early.

NEW YORK, March 7.—The Tribune's special says: It is reported from Hancock's headquarters at Winchester, that Sheridan had defeated Early and scattered his army. The reported capture of Early is not confirmed. [illegible] report that Sherman and [illegible] have united forces at Fayetteville.

NEW YORK, March [illegible].—The Herald's City Point correspondent [illegible] longer any doubt of Sheridan's expedition up the Valley having been crowned with complete success. The concurrent testimony of all [illegible] and refugees [illegible] right, north of the James, to [illegible] extreme left [illegible] and [illegible] Petersburg [illegible] nearly midway between [illegible] and Charlottesville, utterly routing [illegible] the [illegible] mighty [illegible] according to the statements [illegible] to have been the most overwhelming affair of the war, in proportion to the numbers engaged. Very few details have been obtained [illegible] reliability, but that a whole regiment [illegible] as being unprepared [illegible] sudden advent, and fleeing in every direction to escape his relentless arm [illegible]. The accounts agree [illegible] well in every particular, and are in every respect [illegible] with what was expected and [illegible] all are constrained to believe that Early and his army are all captured. The scouts report that Sheridan was in Staunton on Thursday, March 2d. The capture of the army [illegible] occurred the next day and by Saturday Sheridan would be in condition [illegible] Lynchburg.

The Tribune's special dispatch says: "It is reported from Hancock's headquarters at Winchester, that Sheridan defeated Early, but that Early was not captured.

Raleigh Papers on the Situation.

PHILADELPHIA, March [illegible].—The Richmond papers of the 6th contain no military news of importance from North Carolina or Virginia.

NEWBERN, March 1.—Intelligence from North Carolina papers indicate that both sections are concentrating their forces on the borders for a final struggle.

A Raleigh paper says: The people of this city will hear the guns of the great and last battle of the American rebellion, and the tradionary grounds of the Old North State will be a common graveyard of State Rights and state lines, without which no attempt at secession could have been made. The existence of such lines always will be a sufficient reason for a sufficient party to prompt the local interest of one section to revolt against the other sections which refuse to sacrifice their local interests. All history demonstrates the fact that personal interest is paramount to love of country and even life itself, hence to make us one family, one people, and to obliterate these local dangers, we must abolish state lines, which will give us central head magnet to which all local interests will be attracted. The Republican Government, then will be the embodiment of free institutions in a country in which the people cannot run riot, and plunge into extremes under the cloak of democracy.

The Raleigh Progress says: The Federals are concentrating a force of [illegible] men at Newbern, which will soon be ready to strike them. Lee's army in conjunction with Sherman's forces.

Congressional.

The Tribune's special dispatch says: The Senate expects to complete its business this week. The nomination of Cabinet officers were sent in to-day but as there were no committees, confirmation was delayed. The only change is in the Secretary of the Treasury. There is no doubt, however, that Senator James Harlan, of Iowa, will succeed Usher in the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—The Senate confirmed the nomination of Hugh McCulloch as Secretary of the Treasury.

NEW YORK, March 8.—The act of Congress creating the office of Chief of Staff to Lieutenant General Grant, confers that office upon Brig. Gen. Rawlings, who has shared in the hardships and dangers of Gen. Grant's campaigns from Belmont to the present time, serving from Vicksburg as Chief of Staff.

NEW YORK, March 8.—Notwithstanding the refusal of the Senate at the last session to recognize Arkansas by the admission of her Senators, that body confirmed the nomination of United States Attorneys and Marshals in the Judicial Districts of that State.

From the British Provinces.

NEW YORK, March 7.—The Post says: Our Consul at Halifax has informed the Government that one of the iron rams constructed in France, and said to have passed into rebel hands, is now at one of the West India Islands, preparing for a cruise. The old rumor that these vessels are coming to this port, is repeated.

QUEBEC, March 6.—The result of the recent elections in New Brunswick, will probably be the postponement of the confederation scheme for an indefinite period. The legislative union of the Canadas will probably go on.

Treatment of Prisoners—Great Celebration in New York.

NEW YORK, March 6.—The Tribune contains a long article on the exchange question, from one of its correspondents, recently escaped from a rebel prison. It complains that great leniency is displayed towards the rebels by our Government, while our soldiers are dying of starvation in rebel prisons; and also complains of the Secretary of War [illegible] Price on his parole at Washington. [illegible] numerous [illegible] prominent rebels have been released without any equivalent, while the same class of prisoners are treated by the rebels with the utmost severity. It charges the management of this matter upon Secretary Stanton, and demands that the country shall be honestly and fairly dealt with.

NEW YORK, March 6.—The celebration of Union successes, which was postponed on Saturday on account of the weather, took place to-day. The demonstration was a perfect success throughout. The procession was the most imposing ever witnessed here. The military and fire departments both turned out in strong force. The procession was about three hours in passing a given point. The crowd in the streets was probably the greatest ever seen in New York.

Foreign.

NEW YORK, March 7.—The Post's Paris correspondent says, The Emperor [illegible] to make any interference in our war, and is going to remove all pretext for our interfering in Mexico.

The Herald's Paris correspondent states that the rebel residents of that city were greatly elated at the absence of all allusion to American affairs in the Emperor's speech to the Legislature, as they infer he has matured a plan for recognition of the Confederacy [illegible] March.

The Paris correspondent of the Courier des Etats says Napoleon had a paragraph written in the address, expressive of his sentiment [illegible] of the war and [illegible] the advices of the [illegible] the opening of peace negotiations at Fortress Monroe. This news placed him in a dilemma. He thought it better to remain for the time silent on the subject.

Pope Pius, the Ninth, has addressed a letter to the Emperor Maximilian on the subject of the Mexican Church. The Pope claims [illegible] action for the [illegible] of the church, the control of all its property [illegible] Archbishops and Bishops, and the exclusion of every dissenting worshipper.

NEW YORK, March 8.—The steamer [illegible] from Aspinwall the [illegible] arrived, bringing the North Star's passengers and a [illegible] and a quarter in treasure. The news from Chili is unimportant. The harvest has been [illegible] and very large exports of wheat and flour are being shipped to all parts of the world. NEW YORK, March 9.—The following is additional per [illegible]

The London Times has an editorial on the [illegible] of the recent conference, and points [illegible] the admission of Mr. Seward, that a proposition for a combined effort at some exterior policy or scheme was deliberately considered, [illegible] and concludes that the North came out of the [illegible] best. It says the arbitrament of war is [illegible] afresh, with more desperate determination. We deplore the result, but it must be [illegible] that neutrality, if we are but allowed to maintain it, is the true policy for the English Government.

The Index continues its efforts to frighten England into a recognition of the South by pointing out the defence of Canada and uncertain tenure of that district.

SEWING MACHINE

IS THE

GROVER & BAKER!

THE FLORENCE

NEVER HAS RECEIVED

A PREMIUM

OVER ANY

FIRST, SECOND OR THIRD CLASS

Sewing Machine!

We have already published the fact that the GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE was awarded the HIGHEST PREMIUM at the Oregon State Fair, and it [illegible] by the [illegible] of the Florence Machine, we have [illegible] the President of the [illegible] that the ladies who composed the Committee [illegible] the Florence [illegible] that has [illegible] ours, [illegible] a FABRICATION. Now, as we published no names [illegible] unwittingly [illegible] SHE WAS ENTIRELY MISREPRESENTED IN THE MATTER AND DATED JANUARY 10th. Also, the postal to Mrs. Miller's card, dated January [illegible], and [illegible] explanation, and corroborates our right to the Premium under date of January [illegible].

The Agent finding that it could not [illegible] the Premium by the SPECIAL COMMITTEE, CHANGES HIS BASE by calling on the REGULAR COMMITTEE, WHO WERE NOT INSTRUCTED TO EXAMINE SEWING MACHINES AT ALL, but MACHINE WORK.

In answer to the statements of N. O. PARRISH and MRS. CHURCH we append the Statement of FACTS made by J. W. J. PIERSON and MRS. P. K. ROGERS, parties who are sufficiently well and favorably known to warrant due regard.

Statement.

The undersigned represented and exhibited the Grover & Baker Sewing Machines at the late Oregon State Fair, and beg to inform that the whole statement of the agent of the Florence Sewing Machine, and of N. O. Parrish, their agent at Salem, and of Mrs. E. C. Church, relative [illegible] to a [illegible] committee, [illegible] which she was a member, etc., etc., to be [illegible] exaggerated, and without foundation in anything [illegible] truth.

It has always been customary for the President of the Society to appoint a special Committee to act upon Sewing Machines. Of this fact Mr. Parrish was aware, and frequently [illegible] on the first day of this Fair. This special Committee was appointed as has been shown by Judge Thornton's affidavit, and examined and [illegible] both machines, but no other Committee did [illegible] either. Immediately on the decision being announced, the Blue Ribbon signifying the first premium was attached to the GROVER & BAKER Machine by the ladies, and the report read by the President in the presence of Mr. N. O. Parrish agent of the Florence and Mr. J. W. J. Pierson, agent of the GROVER & BAKER. The statement of Mr. Parrish that the decision could not be ascertained until after the close of the Fair is simply ridiculous under the circumstances. The exhibition of our machines was conducted in the most honorable manner, and the remarks of Mr. Collins, traveling agent for the Florence, that, "this has expended [illegible], and would expend another $1,000, if necessary, to obtain the premium," was satisfactory evidence [illegible] that money and not merit [illegible] the First Premium was awarded to the Grover & Baker Machines, and was universally known during and after the Fair.

J. W. J. PIERSON,
MRS. P. K. ROGERS.

So much for "affidavits," and there the question of the Premium at the Oregon Fair rests. We have the Report giving Grover & Baker the first Premium, in our possession, properly authenticated, also all the affidavits necessary to substantiate it, and open to the inspection of any interested party.

The agent of the Florence Machine further oversteps the mark, and makes a statement which betokens either an ignorance or a willful and malicious falsifier. He says "[illegible] however, by a chain-stitch machine, which when exhibited in honorable competition with ANY lock-stitch machine, as has been shown by records of previous Fairs, HAS BEEN MORE FREQUENTLY CLASSED AS SECOND OR THIRD RATE THAN OTHERWISE, would be a disgrace indeed." Now we CHALLENGE Mr. Hill to show, in the first place, that the Grover & Baker's is a CHAIN-STITCH MACHINE, and in the next, to name ANY State or County Fair during the past four years where a shuttle, or lock-stitch machine, has ever been beaten by the GROVER & BAKER when in competition, and the premium awarded as [illegible], and further, that he will not and cannot name one premium which the Florence Machine has ever received over any First, Second, or Third Class Machine in existence. For his enlightenment on this point we append a FEW of the Fairs at which the Grover & Baker was NOT classed second or third rate, BUT DEFEATED ALL OTHERS DURING 1864.

For the enlightenment of the Agent of the Florence we would state that J. QUINN THORNTON, THE LATE PRESIDENT OF THE SOCIETY, IS THE MAN WHO DID NOT BLUSH TO SWEAR TO FACTS CONTAINED IN THE CARD, advertised by mistake of the Printers as J. L. THORNTON, and that the disrepute of the statement of Mrs. Howe is a signal [illegible]

All the pretended [illegible] of a portion of his advertisement we shall make no reply [illegible] argument in which [illegible] we have no [illegible] continue to be [illegible] before the public [illegible] newspaper, but retract nothing [illegible] and hold ourselves personally responsible for the same.

We would ask the "gentleman" Mr. Hill is beginning [illegible] that [illegible] his statements [illegible] the public, and that his conveyances [illegible] Oregon Fair, and as award to the GROVER & BAKER [illegible] upon honorable competition [illegible] We trust that the next time he hazards [illegible] competition at any Fair, he will be able to give [illegible] attention which he was unable to [illegible] with the special [illegible] to the Salem Fair. The GROVER & BAKER [illegible] FORCE which he terms [illegible] the machine itself which will never stand on equal ground with any first class machine in existence. The GROVER & BAKER is too well and favorably known, [illegible] Mr. Hill as [illegible] to [illegible] with the public [illegible]

[illegible] GASTON, Notary Public.

We republish the affidavits of [illegible] [illegible] in Favor of the Grover & Baker [illegible] sworn to [illegible] in the Salem [illegible]

[illegible] in the [illegible] the [illegible] of [illegible] and [illegible] Machines [illegible] on exhibition and [illegible] after [illegible] consultation it was finally decided and agreed to by the Committee, TO AWARD THE FIRST PREMIUM TO THE FLORENCE MACHINE AS THE BEST MACHINE FOR DOING ALL GRADES OF WORK, and a premium to the Grover & Baker Machine for Embroidery, and the Committee reported such decision to the President of the Fair, Judge Thornton, who wrote out the report and read it to the Committee as above stated, four of whom signed it without seeing it, the other member of the Committee having been called away. The above is a statement of the Committee and their final decision.

MARY A HOWE.

STATE OF OREGON,
County of Multnomah, }

Personally appeared before me, the undersigned, a Notary Public in and for said County and State, Mary A. Howe, who, being first duly sworn, says the above statement [illegible] she verily believes.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my official seal, this 4th day of November, 1864.

J. N. DOLPH,
Notary Public, Multnomah County, Oregon.

STATE OF OREGON,
County of Linn, }

I have read the above statement, I being one of the Committee therein referred to, and the same is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

EMILY C. GRIFFIN.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 15th day of December, 1864.

JAMES ELKINS,
County Clerk, Linn County, Oregon.

I was one of the Five ladies composing the Committee on the Examination of Sewing Machines at the late Oregon State Fair, and am the party referred to above as having been called away before signing our Report. I do say that the above statements are true as to the decision of this Committee.

MARY MILLER.

Albany, Oregon, December 14, 1864.

STATE OF OREGON,
County of Linn, }

Mary Miller, the person making the above statement, being duly sworn, says said statement is true to the best of her knowledge and belief.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 6th day of January, 1865.

JAMES ELKINS, County clerk,
By A. F. WHEELER, Deputy Clerk.

PORTLAND, January 26, 1865.

I certify that I am Corresponding Secretary of the Oregon State Agricultural Society; that the original Report of Committee on Sewing Machines at the Fair of 1864, has never been out of my possession more than 30 minutes since I received it from the Board of Managers, and that J. W. J. Pearson (Oregon Agent for G. & B. Machine,) told me in Portland he had written to S. E. May of Salem for a copy of it, and that, at nearly three weeks after the publication by the Agent in San Francisco, that he had it in his possession; further that I am in no way interested in the result of the decision of the Committee, or in the final result of the investigation, except as an officer of the Society.

E. M. WAITE,
Corresponding Secretary O. S. A. Society.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 26th of January, 1865.

LEVI ANDERSON, J. P.,
Multnomah county, Oregon.

The Grover & Baker Agent has made use of the name of J. L. THORNTON to show that Mrs. Howe's statement was incorrect and goes on in the most shameful manner. We do not know who this J. L. THORNTON is. We are not willing to believe, however, J. QUINN THORNTON is the man, for he would blush to swear to such contemptible matters. J. L. Thornton's affidavit does not show, however, that Mrs. Howe was not right in her statement of the facts "that after a long consultation, it was finally decided and agreed by the Committee to award the First Premium to the FLORENCE Machine as the best Machine for doing all grades of work; and a Premium to the Grover & Baker Machine for Embroidery." He says her report was, that "it was finally decided and agreed by the ladies present, to award the first premium to the Florence Machine, for embroidery, etc." which she never did say, but that they awarded the First Premium to the Florence Machine as the best Machine for doing all grades of work, and a Premium to the Grover & Baker Machine for Embroidery.

We trust it will not be supposed from our efforts to prove the justice of our claim to the Oregon premium that we esteem the premium there or elsewhere, upon such a competitor, of any value; to be beaten, however by a chain-stitch machine, which, when exhibited in honorable competition with ANY lock-stitch machine, as shown by the records of previous Fairs, has been more frequently classed as second or third rate than otherwise, would be a disgrace indeed.

The instances are numerous where the Agent of that machine has attempted unfair advantages to obtain premiums which he knew could be taken in no other manner—for proof, refer to any one of the San Francisco Sewing Machine Agents.

The developments in the Salem matter show to what perfection long practice and experience in such transactions have brought him. It is certainly amusing to follow the details in this deep-laid, premeditated and wicked plan.

The Agent of the Grover & Baker Machine selects a distant point for the field of his operations, hoping by distance to cover the means used to accomplish the fraudulent end in view; he selects a time also when we were engaged exhibiting the Florence at two other Fairs, which would prevent our giving it much attention at a third Fair. With the President of the Fair apparently pledged to award him the premium, if a Committee could not be selected who would do so, in fact, with every arrangement made beforehand that would seem to make a failure impossible, he finally ventured to place his Machine in competition with the FLORENCE. The result was such as all who know the two would anticipate —no more than disastrous defeat to the unscrupulous champion of the chain-stitch machine.

The facts in relation to the transaction at Salem now being exposed, are known to too many for the Agent of the Grover & Baker machine to make a successful denial of them. We have hardly begun to "take testimony" yet. The investigations now commenced will be carried forward until every particular in relation to the fraud is exposed, unless the Agent of the G. & B. machine [illegible] acknowledges the truth in the [illegible]

Duty to the Florence will compel us to do this, and while we invite a full and most thorough investigation we trust no one will make a statement for or against us that they cannot fully substantiate if called upon to do so. We say this not to intimidate, but simply that the plain truth and only that may be given.

We would suggest to the Agent of the G. & B. machine that as we are not skilled, even if we had the inclination, in the sarcastic and personal abusive style of writing, apparently so much his forte, that he should refrain from it in future as calculated to cover and obscure the real facts in the case.

That the Florence is a substantial and reliable machine easily understood and operated, doing the heaviest or lightest work, and requiring scarcely no change to be made for anything, all who have them testify.

More than one thousand have been sold on this coast, and we do not know of one that is not giving perfect and entire satisfaction, and if there is one not doing the best work, no matter how distant it may be, if the owner will inform us it will be attended to without any expense whatever to the party.

Instruction will be given free to any who may wish to learn to use the Florence, or who wish to test the machine, whether they wish to purchase or not.

New York Gold Quotations ...

AN AWFUL PUSSTEA.—Muggins is a great joker—he it was who about three years ago, said in an [illegible] beautiful style in regard to the "grade" of certain streets. He always did argue most positively, that notwithstanding it seemed incorrect to strangers visiting the city, nevertheless it was [illegible] Third street between Yamhill and Taylor, [illegible] lower than any other street in the city. This was found to be in consequence of the graded inhabitants whose moral worth was insufficient to raise the property and the street above the sea of society. Yesterday Muggins approached us with a smile. We thought it an omen at once—we can always tell when he has one of them. He looks so happy, and a little careless. He had discovered that Robins were roosting in the branches of an orchard trees, and he said they reminded of an Eastern banking institution. Muggins has been East for his health, had "quarts on the trail," which was likely to prove fatal until he reached New York and obtained several quarts [illegible] and a heavy dose of "currency," which "brought him out all right again," and he is now feeling Bully on the stocks. We naturally wondered why those birds put him in mind of such an institution, and were told that it was because they were "issuing promissory notes," and would very soon be rejoicing to see the branches flourish with their fruits. "That's so," said the [illegible], standing by us, but ain't they biggest humbug?" Muggins thought he meant the birds, of course, and replied—Very likely—and they will come out like the Irishman's "floating islands" all fresh, unless there is a change in the weather soon. Here Muggins appeared to lose himself, the Board he was standing upon broke and he went in.

CHINESE GAMBLERS.—The Celestial denizens of Portland were yesterday crowded and packed into the Recorder's Court room, at an enormous number, to witness the proceedings in the trial of two of their race on a charge of setting up a gambling device. The case was prosecuted by City Attorney Dolph, and defended by Messrs. Page and Stott. A very competent interpreter in the person of Gomet Ah Moe, was employed, and the examination of witnesses disclosed the fact that the Celestial race sometimes indulge in the speculation of a lottery scheme. Their principal den in this city has been kept on Alder street, one or two doors west of First, and it has been customary for the principals to send out agents, who would dispose of the tickets, and at the hour of ten or eleven o'clock P. M. the process of winning and losing would commence. In case small prizes of say $10 or $20 are won, the amounts called for are paid on the spot, but larger amounts were referred to Sun Poey or Qui Chong, at Wa Kee's tea store, where it is represented that an unlimited quantity of money was on deposit to pay off the holders of fortunate tickets. This method of gambling has been in operation for some three months at that place, but the evidence of all the Johns does not go to show that fortunes are any more readily made in that way than they would be in betting at a game of "stop-die," or "black and red," or of any other theiving resort of the gambling community. One of the Johns, however, who testified that he had an innumerable number of friends with whom he was living, was not only more fortunate in that respect than many of the human species can boast, but was lucky enough to make a winning of about $2,000; and Sun Poey failing to honour his draft when presented at Wa Kee's, brought the complaint, which led to an examination of the matter. The case has occupied nearly two days, and was held over for final decision on Saturday.

THE NEW COURT HOUSE.—Judge Marquam, of the County Court, and Commissioners Corbett and Shaw, met yesterday at the Court House in this city for the purpose of examining the bids for the erection of the new Court House for Multnomah county. The bids were for the erection and completion of the entire building in accordance with plans and specifications submitted by the Court some months since, and were as follows: E. M. Burton, $89,000; Stephens & Mendenhall, $87,908; Goodenough & Clark, $84,550. According to the order in which the proposals were to be received, we presume Messrs. Goodenough & Clark will be the builders, as each bidder was required to submit with his proposal the names of two or more responsible sureties. We will soon be able to record the favorable intelligence that the Court House is going ahead in the course of erection.

ANTIQUATED PAPERS.—Mr. John E. Andrews, of Cascades, W. T., writes us that he has a copy of a New England paper of the year 1728, which he proposes to present the Library Association of this city upon his next visit to Portland. He is the donor of the Boston Gazette of March 12th 1770, which was noticed a few days since. It would be fitting for the association to appoint a department in its Library for the preservation of such antiquated documents, and give those contributing, fitting acknowledgment for their favors.

THE SEWING MACHINE WAR.—The above conflict still rages! Yesterday we noticed that J. L. Parrish & Co., of this city, appeared with their side of the question in a very fair statement. This morning Mr. J. W. J. Pierson comes out in his second advertisement, which crowds our pages considerably, and there is no telling where the matter will end. Both parties seem to have an abundance of testimony. We have no intention of interfering in the controversy, before it is submitted to the—purchasers. We esteem the Agents of the respective machines as our warm personal friends, and hope they will excuse us from taking sides. Mr. Pierson has been in the business a long time, and sold a great many of Grover & Baker's machines, which we believe give good satisfaction.

CLOTHES-LINE DEPREDATIONS.—Justice Gray was rather early on track of two men and a boy yesterday morning, who had relieved his clothes-line of an amount of linen the night previous. The thieves were traced to a point beyond the Academy of St. Mary's on Mill street, and out into the suburbs of the city, but were finally lost sight of, by the falling snow having filled their tracks up. Several depredations of this kind have been perpetrated at the southern end of the city since last fall, and the perpetrators will soon be caught. Mr. T. A. Wood, about a month since, followed a man with the determination of taking him, for a similar act, but was not fortunate enough to succeed. The hen-roosts are not exempt from their incursions.

CARRIER'S COLLECTIONS.—In order to facilitate the work of the carriers for this paper it has been determined by them to make the collections from the business parts of the city on Friday of each week. According to this arrangement they will be around to-day. The different routes of the Carriers cover a large extent of the city, and during such bad weather it is found to be almost impossible to attend to the entire collections in one day, hence the change.

WILLAMETTE THEATRE.—The bad weather last evening prevented an attendance at the above place of amusement, and no performance was had. To-night a great piece will be offered: "Bel Demonio," the Pope of Rome, which is filled with interest, and contains some excellent opportunities for the actors to distinguish themselves. "The Brigand" will also be performed. We hope to see a crowded house.

STATISTICAL.—We learn that there are a number of shanties contemplated in the city, to lease as Celestial Dens, in addition to those already occupied. We propose giving the names of the gentlemen who make a business of leasing premises like the above for base purposes, with Celestial Inhabitant, number of street, and amount of money paid, showing that "the wages of sin" are profit to the landlords.

ACCIDENT TO THE WATER WORKS.—A large tree fell across the mains of the Water Works night before last, between this city and Balch's Lake. A section of the iron pipe was driven into the solid earth to the depth of four feet. The works were in order last evening again.

AUCTION SALES.—The balance of the stock of merchandise at the store of Messrs. DeWitt & Co., corner of First and Yamhill streets, comprising an assortment enumerated in the advertisement, will be sold at Auction by Mr. A. B. Richardson, to-day, on the premises.

OUR RIVERS.—The Columbia last night was reported about the same, very low, but with symptoms of improvement. The Willamette was still increasing in the volume of its water. No fears are entertained of a relapse under the present state of the weather.

THE NEWS.—Additional telegraphic news will be found on the fourth page of this paper.

JUDGMENT RENDERED.—The libel suit of Horace Smith against the Victoria Chronicle resulted on the second trial in a verdict of $5,000 in favor of the plaintiff. He claimed $10,000.

LOT CAVISON.—We have heard of parties in Oregon leaving, or about to leave, for some distant place either to try a milder climate and find new diggings, or to join the fortunes of Dr. Gwin. It is said that W. H. Rector, Esq., of Salem, has taken a cotton gin there from New York, and thinks of being a pretty soon Citizen, and encourage the cultivation of that staple. The story came well supported, but may be [illegible].

COAL LANDS IN WASHINGTON TERRITORY.—The [illegible] deals with the act of Congress reserving coal lands from pre-emption, without protecting the rights of those who settled upon them prior to its passage. It says the coal lands of Ohio, Pennsylvania and other States were never so reserved, but were pre-empted as other lands.

Ferrell's Black List Corrected.

Corvallis, Ogn., 1865.
Ed. I wish to state through your paper that Mr. W. Ferrell's statements are not true, and are calculated to mislead the public. He says I sold him a horse some time ago that I warranted good and sound, which is false. I sold Ferrell a horse that was sold to me to be sound at the time, and that the horse could not be kept long on grass—because he could not get his head down to eat. Not many could have seen and bought the horse without knowing the defect in the most was not blind. The horse would have been worth $80 00 if he had been all right. As the horse was, he was a good work horse, and Ferrell never complained of it to me previous to seeing [illegible].

In the year 1861 Mr. Ferrell had dealings with me to the amount of several hundred dollars, and on the 31st of May, 1861, he was out way, as charged him on my books—Cash, screws, One Horse, Harness, One [illegible] Stoves, $18 00—making a total of $248 00. On the 24th of March, 1862, he made out his note as a balance due me on account for the sum of about $125 00, and for that to me days since [illegible] after he sold me a half interest for $32 00, for which I gave him credit for the notes. On the 8th of February, 1863, he sent me word that he had the money ready to pay the note. I went after it; he was willing to do by him, and he pretended to be very sorry that he did not know I was coming, as he had left his money, so that he could not pay it then, and wanted me to leave the note so that he could pay it; and on the 10th of February, 1863, the balance due on said note he paid in Greenbacks at par, which balance was for the principal and interest due on said note and not on account of said horse, as he has stated.

Now, I wish to make him the following proposition: If he will have an affidavit made out by a good Union man, and published in your paper, stating that he ever paid me $35 00 in coin as he says on said note, I will pay the expense thereof, and if he will publish a correct copy of said note, with the credits on the same, I will pay that expense also. Early publication is requested.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.—The Weak, the Consumptive, Rheumatic, Costive, Bilious, and Delicate, after some days' use, will find renewed strength and life pervade every organ of their frames.

Every dose makes the blood purer. The nerves commence in the arteries and terminate in the veins. These pills, as a first effect, act upon the arterial blood, increasing the circulation by which impurities are deposited in the veins, and they throw off such collections into the bowels, which organs, by the energy derived from Brandreth's Pills, expel them from the system. When first used, the Pills may occasion gripes, and even make the patient feel worse. This is an excellent sign, and shows the disease will soon be cured. No great good is often achieved without some trouble in its attainment, and this rule applies to the recovery of health.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO MARCH 7.

Affairs at Wilmington, under the administration of Schofield, are progressing very satisfactorily. No orders have yet been issued respecting the taking of the oath of allegiance. But it is estimated that nine-tenths of the inhabitants are willing to give this proof of their loyalty to the Government.

Fortress Monroe, March 6.—The steamer [illegible] arrived here this morning from Wilmington, N. C., with about 100 of our released prisoners, taken by our forces at the capture of Wilmington.

It appears by advices from [illegible] by the Cosmopolitan, that there is no truth in the reported arrival of a portion of Sherman's forces at Wilmington, or even that a junction had been effected with Schofield's army. Schofield, with part of his army, had advanced about ten miles out from Wilmington, and met with continued resistance from prowling bands of guerrillas, and small detachments of the enemy, who appeared to be out on the road to pick up stragglers belonging to the command.

The rebels were engaged actively endeavoring to cut off the supplies which had left Wilmington under strong guard, [illegible] the use of his troops.

Nothing of the movements of Sherman was known in Wilmington. It was anticipated that they would soon resume active movements, in aid of the campaign in North Carolina.

Capture of Georgetown, S. C., by the Navy.

Washington, March 7.—The Navy Department has received an official report from the region of Georgetown, S. C., of its occupation. The report is dated on board Flag Ship Harvest Moon, March 2d, in which he says: Under date of the 26th I apprised the Department that the naval forces under my command had taken possession of Georgetown. As soon as the occupation of Charleston left my thoughts, and I was at liberty, I gave attention to this point as likely to be the preferable communication with General Sherman, in case such became desirable before entering North Carolina. Accordingly I soon began to collect a suitable force from this station. The McDonald, Geranium and two launches were ordered into the Santee river, being the only ones of that class of vessels which can pass the bars of the river. On the 23d the Santee was ordered to Georgetown, and all the marines we could collect were employed, the object being to pass up the river with a body of men, take the road to Georgetown that traverses the line of the rebel works and make an assault, while vessels attacked the fort. The infantry was to be under command of Commodore Stanley, assisted by Lieut. Col. Williams. On the 23d of February the Santee crossed the bar and joined the main body, upon which the rebels abandoned the battery, while the Mingo steamed up the bay and took possession, with the Pawnee and Mingo. The municipal authorities tendered their submission to the Government of the Union. The battery mounted fifteen guns.

Commodore Stilwager, of the steamer Pawnee, in his report says he has sent a detachment of marines, under Lieut. Bolego, of the U. S. Marine Corps, to occupy the Fort. He also says: I have directed Commodore Creighton to proceed carefully up Black river, and have dispatched the tug Catalpa, with Lieut. Commander Henry and Ensign Glass, prepared to open communication by the army code of signals with Gen. Sherman, who is said to be some 12 miles off.

Dahlgren has issued an order for the maintenance of the authority of the United States in Georgetown. He first says: Conformably with the laws of the United States, slavery no longer exists within the limits of the Union. Persons residing there, who thus become freemen, will in future enjoy the fruits of their own labor.

The Department has received information of the capture of the blockade runners Neer and Prize by the Monadnock and others in Charleston harbor, February 18th.

From Mexico.

New York, March 7.—The Herald's special says: Semi-official dispatches from Chihuahua have been received, dated Jan. 19th. Juarez continued his residence in the city of Chihuahua. It is understood that no French or Imperial expedition threatened him. The official journals received insert resolutions of the Government in regard to the French prisoners made in the battle of San Pedro, won by Col. Razeles, of the Republican army. It has determined that these prisoners will be kept in custody by the Government of Sonora and kindly treated, notwithstanding the right, says the Secretary of War, Negrete, that will be claimed by the Mexican Government to retaliate for the several atrocities committed on Mexican prisoners by the French army. For the future it is resolved that no exchange of prisoners shall be made, but their treatment is to be determined by the manner in which the French will use the Mexican patriots who have fallen into their hands. Among the documents found in possession of the French commander of the expedition which had been defeated, was a proclamation intended for the capital of Sonora, and alluding to the enthusiasm with which they were received on entering the city. This is proof of the confidence entertained in the victory, as well as their determination of being absolutely met with enthusiasm of their own manufacture.

Lee has a New Line of Defense Already Prepared.

The Herald's Sixth Corps correspondent, under date of March 6th says: It is reported that for some weeks past a large number of negroes have been at work throwing up fortifications along the banks of the Roanoke river. Several months since, many and experienced officers surmised that Lee was compelled to fall back from his present position; he would form a new defense along that stream. The country is admirably adapted for the purpose, and the river will add considerably to the difficulties which an attacking column would have to overcome. Siege guns from Petersburg and Richmond have been sent off in that direction via the Danville railroad. Many things seem to indicate that Lee's army will soon be en route for the same place.

Foreign.

New York, March 6.—The City of Baltic from Liverpool 22d and Queenstown 23d has arrived.

The Cuba had arrived at Liverpool, the Virginia had arrived at Queenstown on the 21st of February, and the Bavarian was off Londonderry, Feb. 22d.

The Phare de la Loire denies the statement that the French Government had sent a war vessel in pursuit of the rebel ram Stonewall.

The Cabinet of the Tuilleries does not consider that it possesses the right to pursue the ram, though the Confederates by completing and fitting her out in French waters committed an audacious violation of our neutrality. It is impossible, indeed, for the affair to remain where it is.

The Cuba's news confirming the failure of peace negotiations, caused a slight depression in American securities, and an improvement in cotton. The improvement was afterwards lost.

It is stated that the steamers Sacramento and Niagara were at Ferrol cruising, and watching the new rebel steamer Stonewall, which was alleged to be unseaworthy.

In the House of Lords an important debate occurred on the defense of Canada. Lord Lyndon called attention to the matter, and pointed to the hostile feeling of the Americans. He urged the immediate adoption of measures for the defense of the Province.

Earl Russell admitted the importance of the question, and regretted that any doubt should be expressed on the conciliatory disposition of the American Government. He explained the measures proposed. The Government would ask a vote of £50,000 for the Quebec defenses, while the Canadians would undertake provisions for the defense of Montreal and other points to the westward.

Earl Derby thought the position of the Government was humiliating. He strongly censured the Government for having so long delayed preparation for defense, and ridiculed the smallness of the sum asked for.

Granville thought Derby's views exaggerated, but as long as Canada took a fair share of the expense he thought England was bound to assist the colony.

Malmsbury and Ellenborough complained that the sum asked for was too small.

Russell regretted the discussion. The Government had declined to take any movement which the Canadians declined to take measures themselves, but as they now show a different disposition, the Government now comes forward to assist. In reply to Derby the minister said: The subject of a naval force for the Lakes, owing to the termination of the Convention was under consideration. This debate caused a depression in the funds and a slight fall in Consols.

The Daily News credited Lyndon and Derby with having raised a most mischievous debate.

The Post says: It is probable the government will take all measures for placing a naval force on the lakes, and the Washington Government has explained its action to be entirely of a temporary character.

Field Marshal Lord Cumberland is dead.

The British army and navy estimates, before Parliament, both show a material reduction of charges.

The official record book before the French Corps Legislatif says: France remains neutral on the American question, and has confined herself to the condition of French subjects in America. She regrets that her demands for the reparation of in-

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION! IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies), or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.
